

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 17, 2026

“Christ’s Ascension Gives Us Purpose and Joy!”

AS WE GATHER

Ascension shouldn’t be overlooked. Ascension is a time of happy endings as Jesus concludes His earthly ministry and promises the Holy Spirit’s imminent arrival. Jesus sends His disciples to the ends of the earth as witnesses of His resurrection. He promises that He will always be with us even to the end of the age. We remember today Jesus’ earthly ministry and His mission for us, and we are encouraged and empowered in the promise of His presence as we continue His mission to which He has called us.

THE EASTER ACCLAMATION

C: Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

P: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

C: The Maker of heaven and earth. (Psalm 124:8)

P: The Lord is merciful and full of compassion.

(Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.)

P: Let us then confess our sins.

C: Merciful Lord, we confess to You that we are by nature sinful and we have sinned by our selfish thoughts, our hurtful words, and our unloving actions. We have failed in living as Your sons and daughters and in being Your witnesses. We have been reluctant to do Your will and blind to Your presence and reign. For the sake of Jesus our Savior, we pray, forgive us. Amen.

P: Almighty God in His mercy has given His Son to die for you and for His sake forgives you all your sins. As a called and ordained servant of Christ, and by His authority, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. Almighty God, even as we believe Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to have ascended into heaven, grant that we may also always trust in His constant presence and gracious rule in our hearts and lives, for He lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

THE FIRST READING Acts 1:1-11 (ESV)

In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when He was taken up, after He had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. He presented Himself alive to them after His suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. And while staying with them He ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, He said, “you heard from Me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.” So when they had come together, they asked Him, “Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?” He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by His own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” And when He had said these things, as they were looking on, He was lifted up, and a cloud took Him out of their sight. And while they were gazing into heaven as He went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, and said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw Him go into heaven.”

P: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE GRADUAL (adapt. from Matthew 28:7; Hebrews 2:7; Psalm 8:6)

P: Christ has risen from the dead.

C: [God the Father] has crowned Him with glory and honor,

P: He has given Him dominion over the works of His hands;

C: He has put all things under His feet.

THE EPISTLE Ephesians 1:15-23 (ESV)

For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which He has called you, what are the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His great might that He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. And He put all things under His feet and gave Him as head over all things to the church, which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

P: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE ALLELUIA VERSE #493 “A Hymn of Glory Let Us Sing” (verse 6)

O risen Christ, ascended Lord, All praise to You let earth accord:

Alleluia, alleluia! You are, while endless ages run,

With Father and with Spirit one. Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

THE HOLY GOSPEL Luke 24:44-53 (ESV)

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke the twenty-fourth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

Then [Jesus] said to them, "These are My words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled." Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high." Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up His hands He blessed them. While He blessed them, He parted from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshiped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple blessing God.

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried. And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
