From Your Pastor

The 1912 cornerstone of the original Immanuel church building was kept and incorporated into our current building. You can see it as you enter by the middle doors, walking past the bell. Whenever I see it I am particularly impressed by an abbreviation engraved as part of our congregation's name. The abbreviation is Ev. The entire stone reads Ev. Luth. above the words Emmanuel Kirche. Emmanuel is the German spelling for Immanuel (which means God with us). Kirche is the German word for Church. The abbreviation Luth. is for Lutheran. 1912 is on the side.

The Ev. is the abbreviation of Evangeliche, which is German for Evangelical. The name of our congregation as it appears on the Articles of Incorporation filed with the state of Iowa is in German! The English translation is Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Evangelical is a word that comes to us from the Greek language, the original language of the New Testament. The root word is Evangel, which means Good News. It is the Gospel—Good News of God's gifts of the forgiveness of sins and eternal life which are ours through faith in Jesus our Savior.

Martin Luther wrote this: "Evangel (Gospel) is a Greek word and in German means a good message, good tidings, good news, a good report, which one sings and tells with rejoicing. So when David overcame the huge Goliath, the good report and the comforting news came among God's people that their terrible enemy had been slain, that they had been delivered, and that joy and peace had been given to them; and they sang and danced and were happy because of this. So the Evangel (Gospel) of God and of the New Testament is also a good message and report. The Gospel has resounded in all the world, proclaimed by the apostles. It tells of a true David who fought with sin, death, and the devil, overcame them, and thereby delivered, without any merit of their own, all those who were held captive in their sin, were plagued by death, and were overpowered by the devil. He made them righteous, gave them life, and saved them. Thus their needs were satisfied, and they were brought back to God. Because of this they sing, thank God, praise Him, and are happy forever if only they believe and remain steadfast in this faith."

Evangelical was a word the Lutheran reformers chose to describe themselves. For them it meant to be loyal to Jesus Christ. On the last Sunday of this month we will observe Reformation Sunday. On October 31, 1517 Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of the Castle Church in Wittenburg, Germany. He intended the theses or statements to provide an opportunity to debate the sale of indulgences, which promised the forgiveness of sins to those who paid the price for an indulgence. Through his studies of the Bible, God gave Luther the understanding and faith that sins are forgiven freely for Christ's sake, and this forgiveness is given to those who believe. Luther and those who worked and struggled with him were loyal to the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Only through this Gospel are we given the gift of faith. St. Paul writes to the Thessalonians and says, "from the beginning God chose you to be saved through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth. He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2:13-14). Through our continued receiving of this Gospel through the preaching, teaching, reading of the Word of God we are blessed with all the gifts of God by which we are strengthened, nourished, and encouraged in faith throughout our lives.

The original cornerstone of our church encourages us to be loyal in faith to the Good News of Jesus our Savior. Through this saving Good News we have peace with God and joy in the assurance that nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ. On account of this Good News we sing and rejoice. In faith we do all we can to continue being a people who cause this Good News to resound in our church, in our homes, in our community, and in all the world. With Martin Luther we echo the words of St. Paul: "I am not ashamed of the Gospel" (Romans 1:16).

More details to come!

RALLY SUNDAY 2026

Education Rally Day was held Sunday, September 13. Bibles and special books were presented to children ages 3, and in grades 1, 3 & 5. The childrens' choir, led by Lukas Bornhoft & accompanied by Nancy Bielenbery, sang "I've Got That Joy, Joy, Joy, Joy". Teacher installation was also held during this service.

During the Sunday School hour students and their families participated in a Bible Trivia true/false game in the Fellowship Hall (mother nature prevented the activities at the ballfields.) They also had a picnic lunch of hot dogs, chips and fruit. Thank you to Immanuel's Board of Education! It was a great way to kick off the new Sunday School year!

As I type, we have officially been in school for two weeks. I'd love to say that the children are now being dropped off without tears and the room is so quiet you could hear a pin drop. Of course, that would be a lie. Why? Well, while we have been blessed with very few tears, there are still moments of separation anxiety. It is always a bit heartbreaking to watch those littles who have been at home with mom make the transition to preschool without them. And the volume, well let's just be honest, is it ever quiet in the preschool?

The school year is off to a great start. It's been a pleasure to watch the children as they are discovering parts of God's character. The morning class has been studying creation. I am hopeful they will continue to eat apples after they learned the sneaky snake tricked Adam and Eve into eating the fruit. (I didn't actually tell them it was an apple, but the picture made it appear to be one.) The afternoon class has studied the Trinity and Prayer. We will shift to Noah's Ark and Heaven this week.

We ask for your continued prayers as we move forward with the school year. I am completely expecting God to move in a powerful way this year. He loves these little people. We want to love them as He would desire us too. Please pray that I can begin to identify each child's unique gifts and encourage them to grow in who God has made them to be. I've been specifically asking the Lord for miracles and healing in hearts that may need it. He can do more than we ask, think, or even imagine.

Thank you for your generosity with the Apple Tree. It is appreciated!

Serving Him with you,
Mrs. Gustafson

~ THE LWML INVITES ALL LADIES ~

“Thank You” to everyone who attended Immanuel’s Calf Show dinner. We served 593 meals that day. We are grateful to the many who donated their time working on Friday and Saturday, or baked desserts to serve, or made cash donations. Working together made it another successful year. In addition to being a fund-raising event, it is great community service that people appreciate and enjoy.

Thursday, September 24th will be the Fall LWML Rally which will be held at Our Savior in Denison.

On October 13th, Immanuel will host the Pastors’ Conference. Coffee and rolls will be served prior to the meeting and dinner will follow for those who attend.

Visits have been made to our Immanuel members currently residing in care facilities, and Portals of Prayer devotional booklets were also delivered. The new Portals of Prayer are now available in the Narthex for everyone.

From Your library . . .
“Have we got a book for you!”

The Chase
by Susan Wales and Robin Shope

It’s refreshing and good to realize that you can read a mystery book that holds your interest, but does not contain profanity, gory details, and sexual references. The book written by Susan Wales and Robin Shope entitled “The Chase” is such a book.

“The Chase” tells the story of Jill Lewis, an investigative reporter for a huge and well-known newspaper in Washington, D.C., who has uncovered and exposed the underworld actions of a popular politician who is running for the position of president. However, rather than receiving accolades and recognition for this expose’, Jill finds herself fired and searching for another job. She must settle for a position with the small newspaper in her hometown. Soon Jill finds herself caught up in a chilling race to uncover the evidence that will help her reclaim her old job—but will it be enough to preserve her family’s reputation and save her life?

There are other books in the church library that are attention grabbing mysteries that are outstanding and will hold your interest to the very end. Check them out!

On another note, if you haven’t stopped in the library lately, we invite you to do so. Along with the stunning new table, compliments of Marie Peters; the new computer and chairs, compliments of Immanuel’s LWML; and the computer desk, compliments of a donation from the Gaylord Boeck Estate; we have added another bookcase to house the many books we are blessed to have in our inventory. We would like to recognize and thank Jerry Langholdt for his talent and ability to build another beautiful piece of furniture for us and for you!

Dear Immanuel Lutheran Sunday
School Children and Pastor Mahnken

Thank you for your donation of $261.86 to Mercy Meals of Siouxland. This donation from your Sunday School’s monthly mission offering will allow us to package 1,540 Mercy Meals for hungry children worldwide! Thank you, Immanuel Lutheran Sunday School!

Meals that were delivered to the Orphan Grain Train in Norfolk from Sioux City in both March and June were then shipped to Guatemala. These Guatemalan children received food and were told about Jesus!

We are thankful for Immanuel Lutheran’s ongoing support of Mercy Meals of Siouxland to feed hungry children. God’s Blessings to the Sunday School and members of Immanuel.

In His Service with you,
Margee S. Joines, Director & Larry Joines

AFRICAN RADIO MINISTRIES—NEWS

Radio Pierces the Darkness

Hamza grew up in a devout Muslim family in Ethiopia, hostile toward Christianity. He began listening to ARM Christian radio broadcasts solely to find arguments to challenge believers.

Instead, the Gospel sparked deep questions. One night, Jesus appeared to him in a dream, declaring, "I am Al-Messiah Issa, the Savior. Your own works cannot earn Heaven."

Deeply moved by his divine encounter, Hamza surrendered his life to Christ. Though he now faces severed family persecution, Hamza is standing firm.

Thank you! Because of your support, the radio ministry penetrates dangerous, unrest-afflicted regions of Ethiopia where physical visitation is impossible, bringing the life-changing Light of Christ directly to seekers like Hamza.

Faithful Witnesses

Despite dangerous travel, Rev. Mengistu continues his monthly Ethiopian prison visits. His latest trip revealed deep spiritual maturity; inmates spent a month fasting and praying, in prison, to welcome the Ethiopian New Year. Witnessing such deep commitment in difficult circumstances powerfully demonstrates God's transforming grace.

The Peacemakers

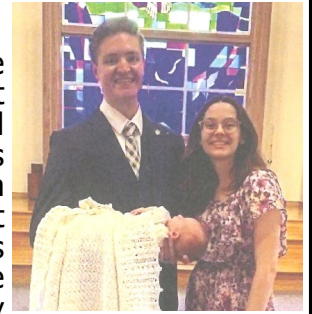

Rev. Tengbeh delivered a compelling radio sermon focused on the first land dispute in the Bible—the story of Abraham and Lot (Genesis 13:1-15).

Shortly after, the governmental district leadership reached out, asking for a workshop on the same topic. Foya district faces land issues ranging from international border conflicts with Guinea to internal socio-environmental disputes, and many are volatile.

It was a blessing to interact with local chiefs who were hungry for the word of God and eager to apply it to resolve these disputes peacefully.

Greetings in Christ!

My wife Olivia and I write to extend our sincerest gratitude for your prayers and your generous support for us during our time at Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne. Our journey to this point has been marked by the blessings of God on so many occasions, and though we've only been through Schleswig as visitors, our time at Immanuel has always been a joy. You have welcomed my parents so generously and have extended the same welcome to us on many occasions. I pray the Lord continues to bless your ministry there as richly as He has blessed us through you!

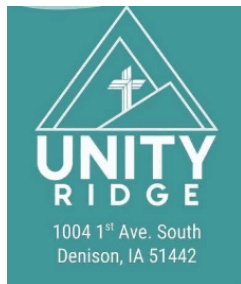

As many of you no doubt know, it's certainly been an eventful time for us in the last couple years! I graduated from Hillsdale College in May of 2025, and my wife Olivia and I were married a month later on June 13. We spent our first year together in Hillsdale until she graduated this May, then at the beginning of August, we moved to Fort Wayne in order to prepare for seminary and the birth of our daughter Maria Susanne Schulz, who arrived on August 30! After a week-long stay in the NICU to receive antibiotics for an infection, we welcomed her home a few days before classes started at CTSFW, and she was received into the Lord's family through Holy Baptism on September 13. We have loved all the newborn cuddles, and for the most part she's been sleeping well at night and only wakes up to eat, for which I continue to thank God as I adjust to my first quarter at CTSFW.

Beyond all life changes, we've also enjoyed getting connected here at the seminary (as much as you can with a 3-week-old at least) and have loved the fellowship with so many other people who, though from vastly different backgrounds, are all united around a common faith and a common purpose. We thank God for all of you and for the thousands of people like you around the nation who make all of this possible for us through your support!

Please pray for my family and I during this coming year, especially for our daughter Maria, and for my studies, that the Lord would use the time here to form me into a fitting servant for His church. I pray as Luther did: "Lord, use me as Thy instrument. Only do not forsake me; for if I am alone, I shall easily destroy everything."

Thank you for your gracious and generous support for us during this time, and I pray the Lord's richest blessings on you all and on your ongoing ministry in Schleswig! We hope to visit someday soon!

In Christ, Jacob and Olivia Schulz (and Maria)

For numerous children, attendance at Unity Ridge School depends on the financial gifts, service, and generosity by you, our support system. Every donated dollar goes directly toward teaching supplies and tuition aid for local families. Every participation or volunteer hour by a community member is a blessing to our faculty and staff. Every act of service ultimately enriches the educational experience and lives of our students.

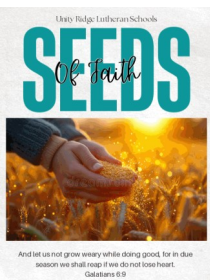

If you are able to provide a financial gift or if you are interested in finding additional ways to serve Unity Ridge Schools, please check out our Donate & Support tab on our website unityridge.org.

Here are two different examples of ways you can donate!

Iowa Lutheran School Tuition Organization
iowalutheransto.com

Founded in 2006, the Iowa Lutheran School Tuition Organization exists to assist families who are Iowa residents who desire a K-12 Lutheran education in Iowa for their children. Explore our website to see if the STO can help you, or to see how your generous donation can help bring the benefits of a Lutheran education to as many children as possible. The Iowa Lutheran School Tuition Organization is affiliated with the Iowa Alliance for Choice in Education.

Seeds of Faith

Unity Ridge Lutheran School accepts commodity grain donations through their "Seeds of Faith" Campaign for Sustainability. Grain can be delivered in Unity Ridge's name, lowering your taxable income, which is often an even greater tax benefit than just a charitable donation. Committing a certain number of bushels to our school each year helps the school have financial security, promotes growth, and allows us to enhance our students' educational experience. This harvest season, pray over your fields, and as God blesses your harvest, prayerfully consider donating grain to Unity Ridge. Contact Megan Torreson 712-393-2002 or your tax preparer for more information.

A Prayer about Quarrelsomeness

It is better to live in a corner of the housetop than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife. (Prov. 21:9)

Gracious Jesus, how often have I read this proverb with the image of a group of "good" men sitting around a Judean campfire complaining about their nagging, "drippy faucet" wives. How arrogant and male of me to act as though only women and wives can be quarrelsome! Yikes! I well know this verse could just as accurately describe a husband, friend, or parent.

Today I want to own my quarrelsomeness and to ask you to free me for far more healthy and redemptive ways of expressing disappointment, making a point, and engaging in conflict.

Jesus, when I lose sight of the real issue and simply get argumentative with my spouse, friends, kids, or even strangers, arrest my proud heart. I'm very aware that sometimes my need to win sabotages my commitment to love well. The result is never good.

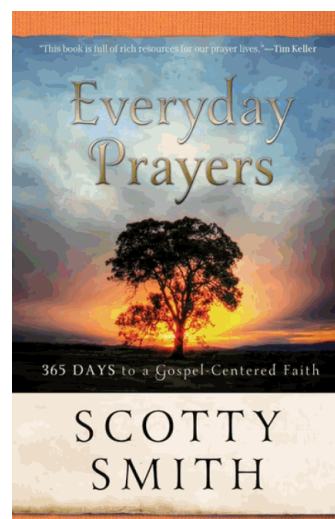

When I keep festering and pestering, rather than resting in you, expose my insecure ways for what they really are: I'm assuming the role of the fourth member of the Trinity. Lord, there's no joy in driving the people I love onto the corner of a roof.

Jesus, when I protest more than I pray; when I launch more than I listen; when I'm more grouchy than grace-full; when I'm more self-righteous than either right or righteous; when I repay nag for nag, petty for petty, immaturity for immaturity—convict me, forgive me, help me, change me.

Because the gospel is true, I have hope.
Because the gospel is true, I repent.

I pray in your compassionate name. Amen.
